How to Search on Baby Come Home

International Child Search Alliance

Baby Come Home \(Baobeihuijia\) is a Chinese website started by Chinese parents whose children were abducted or went missing. It was created to help Chinese citizens find missing relatives. It has listings of Chinese birth parents looking for children, domestic Chinese adoptees looking for their birth parents, ads for lost adults, and international adopted children looking for birth parents.

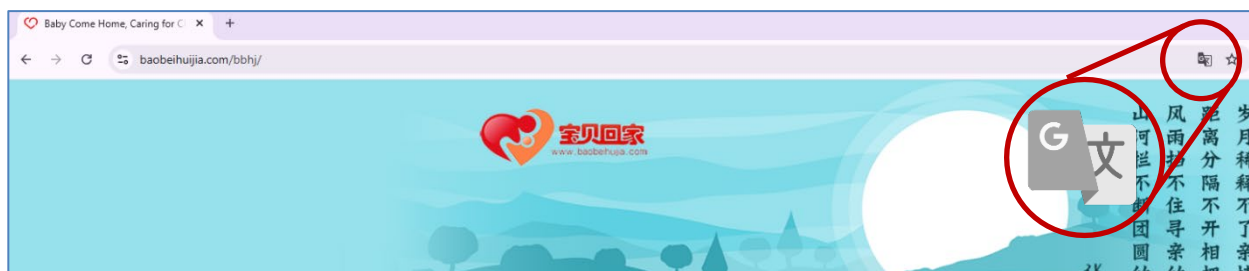

You can search the database to see if there is anyone who matches your information. Remember that it's possible you were born in a province different from the one where you were adopted and that your birth date may not be exact, so don't narrow your search too much.

Instructions

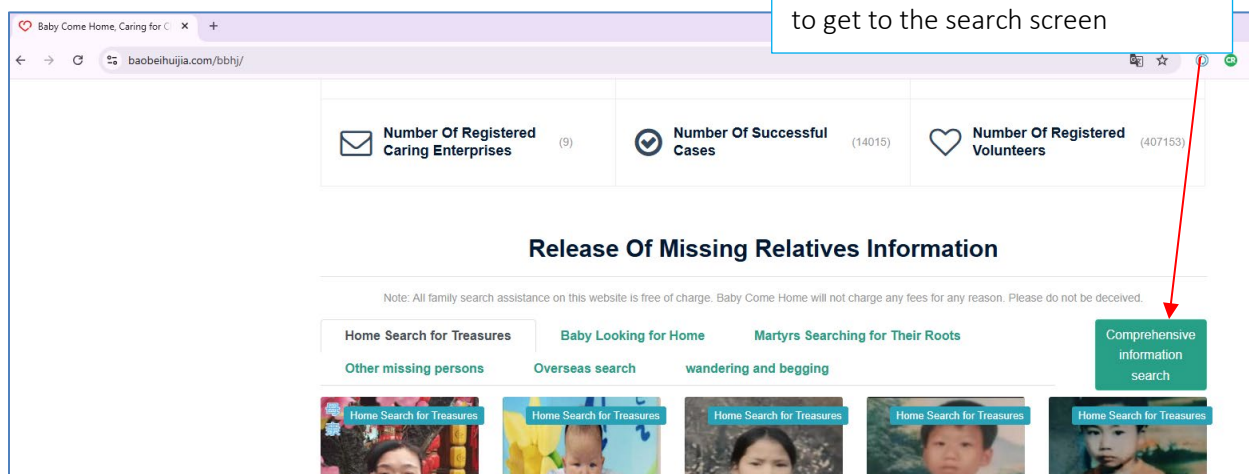

You can also find video instructions on our YouTube page.

Since this is a Chinese language site, use Google Chrome to translate pages to English. You can use the translate symbol in the browser bar to toggle back and forth between languages.

Go to baobeihuijia.com and scroll down and click on the green button to get to the search screen

To look for family who may be looking for you

Choose 'Home Search for Treasures' in the first dropdown box.

The screenshot shows the 'Home Search for Treasures' dropdown menu selected. The menu options are: Home Search for Treasures, Baby Looking for Home, wandering and begging, Other missing persons, Overseas search for relatives, and Martyrs Searching for Their Roots. The 'Home Search for Treasures' option is circled in red. The background shows the website's navigation bar with 'Family Search Registration', 'Volunteer Registration', 'News', 'Videos', 'assistance', and 'Building Platform'.

Since your adoption paperwork may not be accurate, it's better to use broad search parameters. Only fill in province, gender, and birth date range and leave other fields blank.

Select only province with no city selected. If you suspect you may not have been born in the province you were adopted from, leave province blank.

Choose gender: female女 or male男.

Choose the earliest and latest possible dates for your birth.

The screenshot shows the search form on the Baby's Home website. The 'Missing' dropdown is set to '湖南省' (Hubei Province), circled in red. The 'gender' dropdown is set to '全部' (All), also circled in red. The 'Date of' range is set to '1999-01' to '1999-05', circled in red. The background shows the website's navigation bar with 'Family Search Registration', 'Volunteer Registration', 'Social News', 'Related Videos', 'Emergency assistance', 'Party Building Platform', and 'forum'.

Click Search for your list of results.

Switch to List View instead of Card View.

Scroll down the Date of disappearance column to find dates that roughly match your circumstances.

Click on the Name to see details for a listing.

Given that the parents did not fulfill their child support obligations, the follow-up of the search and adoption information provided by the Baby Come Home website is limited to helping them post on the website and comparing them with the children who are looking for their parents registered on this website. No reposting is required for the search and adoption posts.

Registration information

- Search for relatives category: Search for baby
- Baby Home ID: 486921
- Name: Girl
- Gender: Female
- Date of Birth: March 3, 1999 (Gregorian calendar)
- Height when missing: 50cm
- Date of disappearance: March 5, 1999 (Gregorian calendar)
- Missing person's province: Hunan
- Missing location: Yueyang Social Welfare Institute, Yueyang City, Hunan Province
- Description of the missing person's characteristics: unknown features of the head whorl and broken palm lines.
- Other information:

1. Adoption Process: To avoid family planning fines, the girl's parents decided to place her up for adoption. The day after her birth, they placed a note with her birth date inside her clothes and asked her aunt and a neighbor to take her to the Yueyang Social Welfare Institute in Yueyang City, Hunan Province. Years ago, the father inquired with the institution's staff and learned that all the admission and adoption information before 1999 had been lost, leaving no record of who adopted the girl at the institution. Later, someone saw a child who looked very similar to the girl's older sister at the Taihe Market in Yueyang City, but it was uncertain whether the child was a girl.
2. Family members: father, mother, older sister, younger brother (born after adoption)
3. Clothing when adopted: Wrapped in a red blanket and wearing a white flowered cotton jacket.
4. The blood type of the person being adopted, the parents, or the siblings: Father's blood type is O, others are unknown.
